

OVERWHELMING VICTORY SEEN BY REPUBLICAN

Republican Sweep Of Middle West Predicted By Mason.

CONSULTS HARDING

Most Decisive Election Since Grant's Time Belief.

Marion, O., Aug. 2.—A Republican sweep of the middle-west, with Democratic strongholds bordering the "solid south" like Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee turning Republican because of the "far reaching unpopularity of the Wilson administration"—this was the prediction today of Representative at large William E. Mason, a former United States Senator of Illinois, who went over various aspects of the campaign with Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for president, as they sat together on the Harding front porch.

Mason was fresh from a mass meeting of Friends of Irish Freedom at Cincinnati, and from a tour of Illinois, Iowa and Ohio. He declared Illinois would "go all of 200,000 Republican."

"The victory of Harding and Coolidge will be the most overwhelming since that which resulted in Grant's election, and I have never seen one get under way so well for the Republican party as this one has."

"It only because article X of the League of Nations covenant to which Governor Cox, the Democratic nominee for president, stands committed like his illustrious preceptor at the White House, the friends of Ireland in this country will vote the Republican ticket," Mason continued.

"Those Americans who want Ireland freed will support Harding because they know Cox is committed to the Wilson program of 'internationalism' and that article X, which is the heart of that program and not the 'best of the world' which binds Ireland to England and binds the American people to help prevent the Irish people from ever securing their freedom."

Mason described the situation in Ohio as "most encouraging." He said Governor Cox had never "won a straightway fight against the Republicans in his own state."

GIRL CHANGES HER STORY OF DIAMOND MERCHANT'S DEATH

Says Wealthy Jeweler Died After "Friendly Scuffle."

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Roy M. Shayne, who was held in connection with the mysterious death of Samuel T. A. Loftis, wealthy jewelry dealer, was released on his own recognizance by Coroner Hoffman.

Miss Ruth Woods, Shayne's fiancée, who was present when the "last party" came to its tragic end in the Loftis apartment, where the middle-aged Lothario had entertained 50 girls since January, will be retained for further questioning. She changed her story of the affair and what she tells now differs from the version related by Shayne.

Shayne says Loftis slipped on a rug and died when he rushed into the apartment in response to a telephone call from Miss Woods. The girl, however, says Loftis died after a "friendly struggle" with her. It was not until after he was dead that she telephoned for Shayne, she says. At first she said Loftis attempted to attack her and she called Shayne to rescue her.

FINANCIAL WIZARD DENIES CHARGES

Boston, August 2.—Apparently alarmed by the published charge that Charles Ponzi was insolvent, hundreds of note holders besieged his offices today demanding their money back. The throng began to gather early in the afternoon and by 9 o'clock the line extended to Court Square, with a squad of police officers keeping order.

While the office did not open up for payments until after 9 o'clock the employees who were on hand expressed the greatest confidence in their employer and attempted to instill this confidence into the crowd. The charges were vigorously denied by Ponzi today. The charges, contained in a copyright article in a morning newspaper, were written by William H. McMahons, who has been employed as a publicity man by Ponzi.

LED ROBBER BAND

Mrs. Anna Lillard, twenty-four years old, was arrested by Bergen County, N. J. detectives who allege that she was the leader of a band of freight car thieves who operated in the Erie Railroad yards. Two women and three men were also arrested by the detectives. According to the police, thousands of dollars' worth of freight has disappeared from the Erie yards recently. The arrests were made at Passaic Junction, N. J.

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY TO HOLD UP PRICE OF CLOTHING EXISTS

Manufacturers Said To Be Supporting This Attempt.

Washington, August 2.—A conspiracy to hold up high prices of wearing apparel exists and is being supported by manufacturers and jobbers of clothing, according to charges made in a formal statement issued by the department of justice today.

"It only remains to fix personal responsibility before vigorous prosecution is begun," the statement declared, "and the closing of these mills have been used to threaten retail dealers that if they do not buy on the present market their supplies will be curtailed and even higher prices will prevail."

Manufacturers and jobbers of wearing apparel are "using the same tactics as were used during the recent speculative period," the statement declared. "A carefully planned campaign," it is being carried on to force retail dealers to buy at the present market prices," the statement said and in many cases a guarantee is given against a decline in price, in violation of the Lever act.

The retail leaders have refused to buy at present prices, according to the department of justice and the alleged conspiracy has been formed to force and intimidate retail dealers to buy at present prices and thereby to maintain these prices.

GIRL TESTFIES ON STAND IN ALLEGED DELINQUENCY TRIAL

Hearing Of Walter F. Munday Begins Monday.

The trial of Walter F. Munday, charged with contributing to the delinquency of fifteen-year-old Ruth Erna Wright, in an affidavit filed by her mother, Mrs. Minnie L. Wright, began before Judge J. Carl Marshall and a jury in Probate Court at nine o'clock Monday morning.

Practically two hours were consumed in obtaining a jury to sit in the case, both sides using up their preemptory challenges in excusing jurors. By eleven o'clock the following jury had been obtained: Nels Ashbaugh, A. G. Carpenter, Joshua A. Brown, Frank Pennewit, M. L. Wolf, D. E. Anderson, J. H. Nagley, Ed. Wood Thearl White, M. J. Babb Isaaciah Mason and William A. Ambuhl.

Mrs. Minnie L. Wright, mother of the girl was the first witness to be called to the stand. She testified to the relations between her daughter and Munday according to her knowledge. The witness began to testify at nine o'clock and the girl herself was the first witness called to the stand after the recess. The girl's story bore out that of her mother and was in the most a morbid tale. She occupied the stand an hour. Sheriff Lincoln Funderburg was called immediately after the girl. A number of witnesses have been subpoenaed by both sides which makes it practically certain the case will carry over until Tuesday.

Prosecutor Harry D. Smith is conducting the case for the state while Attorneys Frank L. Johnson and Forest Dunkle are representing Munday.

J. FRANK HANLY EX-GOVERNOR OF INDIANA KILLED

Noted Dry Leader and Two Others Struck By Train.

AUTO HIT ON CROSSING

Accident Happens Sunday Near Denison, Ohio.

Denison, O., Aug. 2.—When the automobile in which he was riding was struck by a westbound Pennsylvania freight train at a crossing, six miles east of this city, J. Frank Hanly, 55, ex-governor of Indiana, suffered a fractured skull and died in Twin City hospital here.

Dr. Charles M. Baker, 46, owner of the machine, and his wife, Mrs. Maude Baker, 42, both of Kilgore, the other occupants of the automobile, also are dead from injuries received in the accident.

Ex-Governor Hanly was met at the station when he arrived from Indianapolis, his home, by Dr. and Mrs. Baker, who were driving him to Kilgore, where he expected to deliver a lecture at the Redpath Chautauqua. They arrived at the crossing and waited for an eastbound train to pass. Dr. Baker then drove the machine upon the tracks and was struck by a westbound train.

They were dragged for more than a quarter of a mile. All were conscious when picked up. They were rushed to the hospital in a caboose, detached from a work train.

Ex-Governor Hanly was born April 4, 1865, in a log cabin in Champaign county, Ill. He secured his education by working his way through the Eastern Illinois Normal school at Danville, Ill. He taught school for several years following his graduation from the Illinois normal school and studied law until he graduated. In 1899 he was admitted to the Warren county (Ind.) bar and began the practice of law at Williamsport, Ind. A year later he was nominated and elected to the Indiana state senate.

In 1894 Hanly was nominated by the Republicans of the Ninth Indiana district for congress and was elected by a majority of more than 9,000. In the fall of 1896 he moved to Lafayette, Ind., where he formed a partnership in the practice of law with State Senator Will R. Wood. A year later he was a candidate for United States senator on the Republican ticket against Senator Albert Beveridge, but lost the nomination in the Republican caucus by a few votes.

In August, 1903, Mr. Hanly decided to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. When the convention met he was nominated unanimously on the second ballot. He was elected in 1904 by almost 85,000 plurality, the largest ever given a gubernatorial candidate by either party in Indiana.

When his term of governor expired in 1909, he became an active worker in the prohibition cause.

CANADA MAY RACE BOAT AGAINST U. S. NEXT YEAR FOR CUP

Tentative Challenge Issued By Montreal Sportsman.

New York, August 2.—Canada probably will get an opportunity to "sub" for Sir Thomas Lipton next year in the attempt to lift the America's cup. A tentative challenge was received from Alexander Ross of Montreal, member of the Canadian Parliament, which supersedes that intended by Sir Thomas Lipton for 1922. It was expected that it would be taken up this afternoon by Commander J. P. Morgan, with the America's cup committee of the New York Yacht Club.

If the challenge is accepted the challenger will be designed by an Englishman, but it will be built in Canada and christened Maple Leaf. It will be paid for by public subscription of one dollar each and will be named by Nova Scotia fishermen. Mr. Ross is a well known Canadian yachtsman. He is a member of the Cape Breton Royal Yacht Club and the Halifax Yacht Club, on whose behalf he issued the challenge.

FIRE IN NEWARK DESTROYS BUSINESS BLOCK MONDAY

Newark, O., August 2.—Fire broke out in the Fred Spear block in East Main street early this morning and burned out the entire rear end of the building. The Allen plumbing shop, a restaurant, Feldner's confectionary store and several upstairs living apartments were badly damaged by fire and water. The firemen rescued a deaf and dumb man and woman, and Mrs. Daniel Camp and her daughter much effort. The loss will be several thousand dollars.

UNVEIL MONUMENT

Wright memorial.

Commemorating the famous flight made by the Wright Brothers at Le Mans, France, in 1908, a huge shaft in honor of the American inventors of the airplane was recently unveiled in the French city. The monument was presented to the city of Le Mans by Commodore L. D. Beaumont, of Dayton, Ohio. The shaft is forty feet high and is surmounted by a figure of the early struggles of the Wright brothers for mastery of the air.

AMERICAN FLYERS INCAPACITATED IN POLISH WARFARE

Entire Escadrille Now On Non-Combatant List.

London, August 2.—The entire Kosciuszko escadrille, made up of American aviators fighting with the Polish army has been incapacitated in trying to stem the Russian drive on Warsaw, it was announced today by Captain George Kelly, of Richmond, Va., a member, who is now in London on a courier mission for the Polish government.

"While none of the members have been killed since Edmund Graves, of Cambridge, Mass., was shot to death, practically all the members have been wounded or otherwise injured," said Captain Kelly. "It has been necessary to put the escadrille on the non combatant list. We have been carrying out long bombing raids and reconnaissance for photographic work. Patrol duty was continuous and at times offensive raids took our men as far as ninety miles behind the red front where we bombed troop concentrations, munitions depots and railways."

"Warsaw fears it will be attacked from the air and there is good ground for this anxiety considering the advance of the red army in that direction. But the Bolsheviks if they use daylight machines, which are light in structure they cannot carry big bombs. The city is well defended with high angle batteries. "Most of the members of the squad are in hospitals in Warsaw and Lemberg. We have all been decorated once and some of the men have been decorated more than that. There are plenty of medals but we have been short of food."

RAIL RATE INCREASE REFLECTED AT MARKET

New York, Aug. 2.—The rate advances granted to the railroad by the Interstate Commerce Commission were reflected in gains of from 1 to 3 points in the railroad group at the opening of the stock market today.

Trading rose 2 points to 91 1-4; Southern Pacific 2 3-4 to 93 3-4; Northern Pacific 2 1-4 to 74; Baltimore and Ohio 2 3-4 to 72 5-8; Union Pacific 2 1-2 to 118; New York Central 3 3-8 to 72; Rock Island 2 3-8 to 37 1-2 and New Haven 2 3-8 to 31 7-8.

Low Ebb In Tire Production. Akron, O., Aug. 2.—The low ebb in automobile tire production, which has thrown 25,000 men out of work in Akron alone, has been reached, according to statements made by high officials in rubber companies. The trend upward, they say, will not start before Nov. 1, however, and half-time shifts will be the rule in the tire factories until that time. The great percentage of men laid off here have left town.

RAILROADS WILL SEEK INTRASTATE RATE INCREASE

Application To Be Made To Commissions Of States.

STATEMENT ISSUED

Advances Sought To Correspond With Interstate Increases.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Authority for the railroads of the country to increase their revenues by approximately $1,500,000,000 was granted, by the interstate commerce commission. Freight rates will be advanced about one-third, passenger fares one-fifth and Pullman charges one-half.

Coastwise and international steamship lines and electric railway companies also were granted permission to increase their freight rates in proportion to the increases granted to the railroads serving the same territory. No estimate of the aggregate amount to result from these advances has been made.

The new rates, which are to continue in force until March, 1922, will become effective upon five days' notice by the carriers to the commission and the public and they must be in operation before Jan. 1. Since the government guarantee expires Sept. 1, the carriers are expected to bend every effort to put the advances into effect by that date.

Increases granted by the commission are designed to offset the $500,000,000 wage advance awarded by the railroad-labor board and to provide the 6 per cent net income on the aggregate value of the railroad properties as permitted under the transportation act. The aggregate value of all the railroads was estimated by the commission at $18,800,000,000 as against a book value of $20,040,000,000 given by carriers.

Advances of intrastate rates—freight, passenger and Pullman—to correspond with the interstate increases authorized by the interstate commerce commission, will be asked of the various state railway commissions by the carriers, it was stated here by Alfred P. Thom, general counsel for the Association of Railway Executives.

Such intrastate rate increases, Mr. Thom said, will not add to the total income provided for by the federal commission's decision, because in submitting their estimates the carriers calculated on a basis of increases of both interstate and intrastate rates. Applications to the state commissions are now being prepared by the railroads, and it is expected by the railway executives that the increases will be granted. Should any state commission refuse to authorize them, however, the carriers, Mr. Thom said, will proceed under the transportation act and ask a hearing before the interstate commerce commission to determine whether the existing intrastate rates are discriminatory or prejudicial to interstate commerce.

SPITEWORK ALLEGED IN DESTRUCTION OF BARN BY FIRE

Culprit Admits Guilt; Says He Had Grievance.

Mansfield, O., Aug. 2.—A grievance against his employer is given by Arthur Spohn, 37, as the reason for burning the barn on the farm of the National Stock Food Company north of this city Saturday night. Spohn who freely admits setting fire to the barn, says his employer H. D. Shelley who manages the farm, refused to pay him for overtime. Spohn says he touched a match to a fork full of hay that had been thrown from the mow. The barn and contents were entirely destroyed. Spohn who came here from Toledo drove a wagon which hauled the garbage from this city to the piggery conducted by the National Stock Food Company.

THREE NEWARK MEN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Newark, O., Aug. 2.—Joseph Emberry was killed and Gus Ramsey and F. E. Emberry, both fatally hurt when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a fast Pennsylvania train at Dresden, east of here last night. The injured were taken to a hospital in Zanesville. The machine was demolished.

All three were from Newark.

Two Killed In Explosion. Youngstown, O., Aug. 2.—Two workmen were killed in an explosion at the powder works of the Grasselli Chemical company, east of Lowellville.

OPENS NOVEL CASE

A unique situation was presented to Supreme Court Justice John M. Tierney, of New York, recently, when Miss Kathleen McMahon, an Irish nurse, made her second application for United States citizenship. Miss McMahon came to this country during 1912 from County Clare, Ireland, and insists that she is a citizen of the Irish Republic and does not recognize King George of England as her sovereign. She served with the American Expeditionary Forces in France during the war as a nurse.

COX WILL SEARCH FOR BURIED TREASURE ON NEW JERSEY SOIL

Silver Plate Said To Be Hidden In Eastern State.

Dayton, Ohio, August 2.—Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, is soon to begin a search for buried treasure.

Under other circumstances, the Governor said today he would take a pick and shovel and go hunting for the hidden valuables in person, but with the campaign coming on, he expects to be so busy hunting votes that he'll have to delegate the task to some one.

The treasure-trove in question consists of a large quantity of silver plate, and it is buried, the Governor believes, somewhere near Freeboard, N. J. It belonged originally to the family of his great grandfather General James Cox, first speaker of the National House of Representatives, and it was hidden during the Revolution to prevent its falling into the hands of the British.

Governor Cox was told of the cache today in a letter from an aged aunt living in Illinois. He is deeply interested, he says, and intends to do everything possible to recover the heirlooms. The Governor already has a considerable collection of relics and curios of significance in the history of his family.

At a conference today between Governor Cox and members of the local committee, final details of the notification ceremonies on August 7, were worked out. Following the conference, the Governor tackled the job of cleaning up routine correspondence which has accumulated while he was working on his speech of acceptance.

NEW WORLD RECORD IN AUTO RACING SET BY CHEVROLET

Time On 100 Mile Spin Lowered 2 Minutes, 7 Seconds.

Columbus, O., August 2.—A new 100 mile world record—89 minutes and 23 seconds, was set up here when Gaston Chevrolet, famous French autoist, won the Century auto race here yesterday. This new record is 2 minutes and seven seconds faster than the dirt track record made by Tom Alley at Minneapolis on July 4, 1914.

Chevrolet achieved his victory yesterday in the Frontenac car which he rode when he won a $10,000 purse and first place at the Indianapolis Speedway Memorial Day.

Another record—a local one—was broken when 14,758 paid admissions were recorded at the driving park where the race was held under the auspices of the Columbus Auto Club.

The race started with Tommy Milton and Ralph Mulford as Chevrolet's competitors Milton recently smashed records in Florida for the straightaway.

Mulford was out of the contest, due to a broken piston, before he had gone a mile. Milton was four miles back of Chevrolet when the race ended.

COUNTER ATTACK ON POLISH FRONT BEGUN BY REDS

Armistice Negotiations Delayed For Few Days.

ADVANCE CONTINUES

Russians Now Within 75 Miles Of Polish Capital.

Paris, August 2.—"The Poles have halted their retreat and have begun a counter offensive over a large part of the Russo-Polish front," said a Warsaw dispatch to the Polish legation today.

London, August 12.—The allies have decided to clamp down a more drastic blockade upon Soviet Russia if the armistice negotiations fail, it was learned from an authoritative source this afternoon. Preparations to this end already are proceeding.

Official circles make no secret of the fact that neither Great Britain nor France is prepared to go to war against Russia. Any measures that are taken must be of an economic nature.

London, August 2.—Active armistice negotiations between the Poles and Russians may not commence until the latter part of this week, according to a Warsaw dispatch to the Daily Express today.

The Warsaw correspondent of the Daily Express says that the impression prevails in the Polish capital that the Polish and Russian envoys will be authorized to discuss peace well as the armistice.

The Poles are demanding complete independence of action and freedom from internal and external interference on the part of the Bolsheviks.

M. Kaminski, of the Moscow soviet government, has arrived in London. He was quoted in the Daily Sketch as saying that "he is determined to carry out the wish of Moscow to bring about a prompt return of peaceful and normal relations between Russia and Great Britain."

Paris, Aug. 2.—The Russian soviet army is now within 75 miles of Warsaw. It has captured Lomza, which is just that distance northeast of the Polish capital, and the towns of Kolno and Szczuczyn, near the German border, in the Lomza region.

In spite of these and other Bolshevik successes, the military experts of the Anglo-French mission in Poland are reported to be optimistic because of the remarkable stiffening of the Polish northern army under General Haller.

The chief concern of the experts is the position of the Fourth Polish army, defending Brest-Litovsk, but Polish advisers declare the pressure upon that army will be relieved shortly by the Polish counter offensive which is being directed northeastward from the region of Bredy, north-east of Lemberg.

A large number of ships are arriving at Danzig daily from French and British ports with munitions, which are being unloaded rapidly and rushed to the Polish front, according to word received here.

JAPANESE ENLIST BY HUNDREDS IN CANTU'S NEW ARMY

Foreigners Rally To Stand-ard Of Rebel Forces In West.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 2.—Japanese are enlisting by hundreds in the army of Estaban Cantu in Lower California, according to Henry M. Hill, consul general from the republic of Panama to San Salvador, who was in El Paso on his way to Washington. Mr. Hill added that the majority of citizens of Lower California are not in sympathy with Cantu. The Japanese, Mr. Hill says, in enlisting in the Cantu movement, are expressing their willingness to enter any movement that will give them a foothold on the American continent. He added that the success of the revolutionary faction in trying to establish a separate government would mean that such a government would be dominated by Japanese influence. All Central America, said Mr. Hill, is in sympathy with De La Huerta and his efforts to bring peace in Mexico.

Mrs. Weaver managed to choke the machine before serious injury resulted but the child's arm was badly bruised and the ligaments torn.

Worried Mother—Don't you think that you and your daughter might compromise a little, and each one adopt a bit of the other's point of view? It's only natural that young girls and boys like the bright lights and festivities of city life. After all, there is really no harm in a party of girls going to restaurants together as long as they do not go to any questionable places. As for men who spend money foolishly and recklessly, that is a phase that many girls go through and get over. If your daughter has a good education, her innate common sense will come to her rescue and she will see the emptiness and uselessness of spending money simply for the sake of spending it.

AUTO TRUCKS HELD IN SPRINGFIELD; ARE LOADED WITH WHISKY

On a tip given by C. A. Coffman, of Yellow Springs, Springfield police Sunday night held up two auto trucks loaded with 400 cases of whisky valued at $12,000 and arrested three men in charge of the trucks, who registered at the county jail as Vinze Zagarella, Louie Orlando and Bert Jamerson. They are being held pending investigation by federal authorities. Marshal Coffman suspected the trucks to be loaded with whisky when prisoners being charged with betting they stopped at a Yellow Springs on the game between New York and garage to obtain gasoline. The Mar-Cincinnati.

shall said he had seen the same trucks and drivers pass through Yellow Springs before, and was on the lookout for them. From the direction they were travelling they evidently came through this city, but probably did not stop here.

The men carried papers purporting to permit them to transport liquor, but after an investigation of the papers by Federal Commissioner Floyd Johnson, of Springfield, they were ordered held for investigation. Zagarella claims he is under bond to the United States government in the sum of $100,000; that he hired the truck drivers. He said he could not ship the whisky by freight, as the railroads would not accept a shipment of less than 1,000 cases at a time. The whisky is being transported from Kentucky to New York City.

COUPLE HELD HERE FOR WEEK WILL FACE NEW CHARGE AT HOME

James F. Chandler, 23, and his wife, Rose Chandler, 15, arrested in this city for Kingsport, Tenn., authorities on a charge of stealing an Oldsmobile roadster on which Chandler's father-in-law held a large mortgage, will also face a charge of buying $150 worth of goods at Kingsport store and leaving without paying for it, according to Deputy Sheriff W. F. Flora of Kingsport, who returned there with the prisoners and the car Sunday.

Deputy Flora arrived in this city Saturday afternoon after having the machine fixed up at a local garage left in it Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, driving the pair back to Kingsport. He told Chief of Police Graham of the other charges against the couple, that before leaving they purchased a quantity of clothes at a Kingsport store, charging them and then leaving town.

Chandler and his child wife were arrested here a week ago Sunday by Patrolman Ed. Wilkins on a charge of driving without auto licenses and without a rear light. When questioned their stories caused the local officers to detain them on suspicion. Monday morning Chief Graham telephoned Kingsport authorities and was told to hold the pair and the car. The delay of the Kingsport deputy in arriving here to take charge of the couple was occasioned by the fact that the Kingsport telephone operator misunderstood the name of this city as "Fenia" instead of Xenia. It was several days before the deputy learned the proper name and where to go after his prisoners.

According to Deputy Flora, Chandler purchased the car, paying $200 cash and later about $200 more. His father held a mortgage on the balance, when Chandler and his wife ran up the big charge account, and taking the car skipped town. The man from whom the car was purchased ordered the Kingsport authorities to trace it anywhere at his expense.

MONITORS ON LONG END OF SCORING

Coming into the lucky seventh, one run behind the Xenia Monitors, chalked up a list of runs as long as an Arctic night and thereby secured the first tie-hold on the championship of the city, by defeating the Xenia Cadets 18-7 at the Meteor A. C. Park Saturday afternoon.

Up to the big seventh, the Cadets were breezing along in good shape, garnering a few runs at will when needed, and they went into the seventh confident of coming out on top of the heap. In that stanza the heavy artillery of the Monitors was brought into action and they took Regan for a whirl before the last man was out. The team batted around in the inning, Hockett getting two hits in the same frame. Just to rub it in the Monitors secured three more runs in the eighth and the contest was sewed.

The game was first of series to be played between these two teams. The lineup: Cadets—Sheets rf, Reese lf, Cain cf, Randall 3b, Mendenhall ss, Milburn 2b, Schwab 1b, Regan p. Slable c. Monitors—Shaw cf, Rockwell p, Jeffries c, Hockett 1b, Foley 2b, Brown lf, Smith rf, Thompson ss, Oren 3b. The score:

WHOLE LIFE WAS MISERABLE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Cabinet maker suffered tortures from indigestion, dyspepsia, gas in stomach, and constipation. Became quite nervous and had dizzy spells, but Drecto gave relief.

"I know what it is to suffer he tortures of indigestion, dyspepsia, and gastritis, and the other ails which go along with them, and I also know what it means to get rid of them," said Mr. John Melott of 405 Centre street, Findlay, O. Mr. Melott has been an expert cabinet maker for Folk Bros. for the past 18 years.

"This medicine has almost worked a miracle in my case. After each meal I'd fill up with gas; my stomach burned like fire, and I had griping pains. My bowels were badly constipated; I suffered from dizziness and vertigo and became nervous so that I slept poorly and would rise in the morning feeling tired out.

"I had taken much medicine, designed to cure such troubles, but I never got more than temporary relief. I think the reason Drecto has done me so much good is because it acted on the rest of the trouble. It got my bowels moving regularly; cleared my liver off and strengthened my stomach. I've taken three bottles of Drecto and my trouble has entirely relieved, and my troubles have been entirely relieved. I sleep sound; have a good appetite and feel good all over."

All druggists now sell Drecto and it is being especially introduced in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

W. G. Haines, of the Upper Bellbrook pike, was painfully injured when he fell from a scantling in the barn at his home Saturday. His foot struck a nail causing a jagged wound.

HERBERT HOOVER, THE FOODSTUFF MAN, FAVORS CUTTING OUT THE LUXURIES.

In connection with the subject of the high cost of living, we are constantly told that we should cut out the "Luxuries." But there comes the question of what are Luxuries? What may be an actual Necessity to our person, may be a Luxury to another. For instance, an automobile, that was almost a necessity as a means of getting about for one person, would be a great luxury to another who did not need it at all only as a pleasure comfort. And the same with a thousand other things. And when it comes to food, we know that condiments to season food, and often to make it less digestible, is a Luxury and better done without.

But with high wages, and plenty of money in the pockets of the people "come easy, go easy" seems to be the rule, often forgetful of the possible day when, from some unforeseen cause the money thrown away on Luxuries would have come in very handy to procure the Necessities of life.

One writer speaks of Luxury as something which makes a man so soft that it is hard to please him—certainly an undesirable condition and one to be avoided. Luxury may often contribute to give bread to the poor, but it has been claimed that if there was no Luxury there would be no poor.

John Adams, the second President of the United States, gave us some good advice on this subject, as follows: "Whenever vanity and gaiety, a love of pomp and dress, expensive diversions and elegant entertainment get the better of the good judgment of men and women, there is no knowing where they will stop, nor into what evils they will lead us."

Herbert Hoover, one of our greatest men at this time, the man who fed starving Europe during the war, and who is level headed on all subjects, it appears to us, has given the public a timely article on "Thrift" in the August number of the Ladies Home Journal, from which we quote largely as follows:

"It is wisdom for every man and woman to set the house in order against the dangers ahead. What are these dangers? To put some of them very simply, the possibility that the wage or salary earner may find himself quite suddenly unemployed; that investments may lose their value; that it may become difficult to borrow money; and, worst of all, that necessary goods may not be obtainable in the market.

"This last is something which the majority of Americans simply cannot realize, for the lessons in shortages of one kind or another during the last few years have been comparatively small. Europe has had this lesson driven deep into her stricken consciousness, for, with a great plenty of paper money to buy with, she has found almost nothing in the market to buy.

"This is the real peril and terror that confronts our civilization. It is the most alarming symptom that can be presented in our society. It is the same thing as when a doctor finds that his patient's blood contains no red corpuscles, that there is no reserve of energy, no strength and no power to battle against disease.

"Much has been said and written about silk shirts and silk stockings. I will not condemn the use of these articles, but if those who wear silk stockings could see the millions of people in Europe who have no stockings at all and indeed no shoes, they would take less satisfaction in the sheen and pattern of their costly hose. And if those who wear silk shirts could visualize the millions who lack shirts of the cheapest material, they too would feel differently. Must I reiterate that this is not a moral, religious or brotherly-love proposition—at least not from the standpoint of my argument—but that it is an economic proposition of enlightened self-interest? If we spend our resources on silk and luxuries and thereby heighten the world shortage of necessities, we hasten the day of catastrophe for all mankind. One pair of silk stockings is a venial lapse and one superfluous hat is a trifle, but all these lapses and trifles added together may be enough to stagger the world."

The Hoover article is addressed especially to women. Among other things which Mr. Hoover especially mentions as "superfluities" which the world might get along without so much of are Diamonds and Jewelry. He says America sends to Europe shiploads of useful commodities, such as foodstuffs and machinery and cotton; and gets back in return a wheelbarrow load of diamonds and jewelry.

In the same class with jewelry are perfumes, which are now so largely imported and used. There was recently advertised a bargain sale of perfume in which several bottles of choice quality were marked down from about $65 to only $54 apiece.

The press has reported that the greatest sales of fur ever known have occurred in the United States this year and that we are, or will be, the fur center of the world. In this connection an inquiring mind might ask whether reports from the weather bureau indicate that our climate is changing and that our winters have become so much colder as to require the use of fur garments more extensively. I do not believe the climate has changed or that winters are colder.

But, perhaps some of these furs are now used to keep out the heat, as we see frequent use of them even with the mercury at 90.

Columbus, Aug. 2.—Gaston Chevrolet, the famous French driver, easily won the 100-mile race yesterday at the Columbus Driving park. His time of 89 minutes and 23 seconds lowers the century dirt track mark established July 4, 1919, at Minneapolis, by Tom Alley, who covered the distance in 91 minutes and 30 seconds. Tommy Milton finished second, trailing four miles behind Chevrolet. Ralph Mulford was forced from the track, before he had finished a mile, with a broken piston.

MARKET AND FINANCIAL NEWS

STOCK
The general credit situation has improved very little and tight money retains its hold upon the market, as recent events have demonstrated. The market clearly reflects the general lull in business. Industry is watching the stock list carefully for a suggestion of what the next six months will bring. The market has the well-known faculty of discounting conditions well in advance and is at all times an acutely sensitive barometer. Broadly speaking, stocks are a good deal rather than lower, barring occasional sharp breaks. Whether the traditional August rise will eventuate is a question. Undoubtedly stocks will hereafter sell less at speculative values and more on a basis of their actual investment values.

GRAIN
Tight money demonstrated its power over wheat in common with other commodities when values crashed recently. The cumulative effect of strongly bearish crop reports and the strained industrial situation likewise made itself felt and inspired much trepidation among traders on the market's constructive side. The old crop hold over is receiving marked attention as the new crop looms near. Weather can supply will determine future prices. Winter wheat is moving backward more rapidly than heretofore and will be a factor henceforth. The extent of black rust damage is problematical. Car supply is woefully deficient, especially in the south west. Reduced feed demand and Argentine competition affect corn bearishly.

LIVESTOCK
A liberal movement of new grain would improve the stocker and feeder market, new restricted by the banks' unwillingness to extend accommodations. Farmers who have sold a part of their grain are in a position to buy livestock. To meet maturing obligations growers have liquidated livestock on an increasing scale. The market has suffered corresponding depression. Yet with the animal birth rate lower than in recent years a steady downward trend in prices does not seem warranted. The country must have meat and the farmer must sooner or later receive a price in harmony with his cost of production. Recent prices virtually prohibit the feeding of corn. The ultimate consumer may have to seek relief in importations from South America and Australia if livestock production declines further.

AGRICULTURE
For a number of weeks Bradstreet's food index has declined typifying the broad downward trend in foodstuffs that is expected to continue until the new crop has been partially absorbed. On July 24 the index number was 4.70 as compared with 5.27 a year previous. The recent slump in the grain market was quite sensational but that food prices generally will take a similar course is very doubtful. The indications are that after the initial shipments of new crop grain have lost their force symptoms of a counter movement back to levels nearer those of Spring will appear.

SHIPS TO MOVE AGAIN
The Shipping board's decision to place 35 new vessels in the Great Lakes grain carrying trade will expedite the movement of the new crop to seaboard and relieve the traffic tension. Each boat is capable of loading 100,000 bushels of grain and carry one-fifth of this amount through the Welland canal. No large profit is expected from the operation. Should these vessels perform a signal service in transporting the new crop, the enterprise will give renewed impetus to the St. Lawrence canalization project. The Great Lakes are an incomparable highway.

"TLL TAKE NOMINATION," COOLIDGE IS TELLING VISITING G. O. P. LEADERS

Governor Coolidge accepting nomination. This picture of Governor Coolidge was taken at Northampton, Mass., as he informed visiting Republican leaders who had come to notify him of his nomination for vice president that he would accept the honor. of commerce and can be made an outlet for the millions of bushels of grain now dammed up in the Mississippi valley territory. France has escaped serious congestion of traffic following depreciation of her railroads, thanks to the republic's magnificent system of inland waterways. Barges, plying industriously across the state of New York from lake to ocean, are expected to afford a similar type of relief in this country. The time is near for plowing in expectation of the next year's winter wheat crop. The farmer is studying world conditions with a view to determining the number of acres which he can sow to advantage. High production costs, farm labor shortages and traffic demoralization all tend to discourage heavy seeding. On the other hand present prospects for next year give no reason to anticipate a surplus crop of grain or prices below a fair cost of production.

A TRIAL WILL CONVINCE YOU.

NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.

MEDICAL JOURNAL CONFUSES COUNTIES ON BOND ISSUE

That the item in the August number of the Ohio State Medical Journal stating that there was to be a $200,000 bond issue for a memorial hospital voted on in this county August 10, through a petition presented by the American Legion, was due to a confusion with Darke county, is the statement of Dr. R. R. McClellan, secretary of the local association and therefore correspondent to the Journal.

According to Dr. McClellan, the confusion probably resulted to the fact that Darke and Greene counties lie in the same district medically speaking, and the error was made in that way. This paper published a denial of the special election predicted for the benefit of physicians who take the Medical Journal and who might have been led to believe that a bond issue was to come up under cover at the primaries.

THADDEUS P. CARR DIES IN MINNESOTA

Thaddeus P. Carr, formerly a prominent Yellow Springs man died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Neibel at St. Paul, Minn., Saturday evening. Mr. Carr suffered from a serious form of stomach trouble and last spring went to Rochester, Minn., to consult the famous Mayo Brothers. His condition did not improve and he grew gradually worse until his death.

Mr. Carr was born near Jeffersonville, and was about 70 years of age. He was employed until his retirement as a piano tuner, and was well known in this section. His wife who was before her marriage Miss Elizabeth Betsford died a year ago last April and in the fall following her death Mr. Carr sold his home in Yellow Springs, and went to St. Paul to live with his daughter. He returned to Yellow Springs for a visit last spring.

Prima
WASHES BY SURFACE TENSION
NATURE'S WAY

The PRIMA DOMESTIC LAUNDRY MACHINE depends for its efficiency on a principle as old as that of gravity—the principle of surface tension—a utilization of one of nature's own forces in a new way.

The terrific hammer stroke of the elliptical tub breaks up into small drops the soapy water or suds, at the same time driving it directly through the fabrics,—it has a tendency to re-unite and form a suction which instantly removes all the dirt. Consequently PRIMA washes in one-half the time required by any other machine. No corrugation—no rubbing devices—no mechanical contrivances of any kind whatsoever are use inside the tub—being thoroughly smooth it offers no chance to tear or injure the most delicate fabrics.

See the PRIMA at the Delco Light Exhibit at the Greene County Fair.

DINNER STORIES

"How did you come to be lying there in the gutter?" demanded the policeman severely.

"It's all right," replied the inebriated one. "I jus' happened to walk between two lamp-posts and leaned against the wrong one."

Young Aldrich was waiting in the parlor for his loved one to appear, when her small brother came in and took a seat.

"Well, Chester," said Aldrich, "what did your sister say when you told her I was waiting?"

"Why, she didn't say nothing," replied the small brother. "She just took a ring off one finger and put it on another."

A traveling company performed in a tent on a wet and cold evening. The leading actor took the part of Appius Claudius, and he got very wet through a leak in the tent.

On leaving the stage he was accosted by an admiring dame intent on congratulating him.

"Are you Appius Claudius?" she inquired.

"No, madam," the actor replied, sternly; "I'm as miserable as sin."

Men relate that Mrs. Newlywed went to the grocery store to do her morning marketing. And she was determined that the grocer should not take advantage of her youth and inexperience.

"These eggs are dreadfully small," she criticised.

"I know it," he answered. "But that's the kind the farmer brings me. They are just fresh from the country this morning."

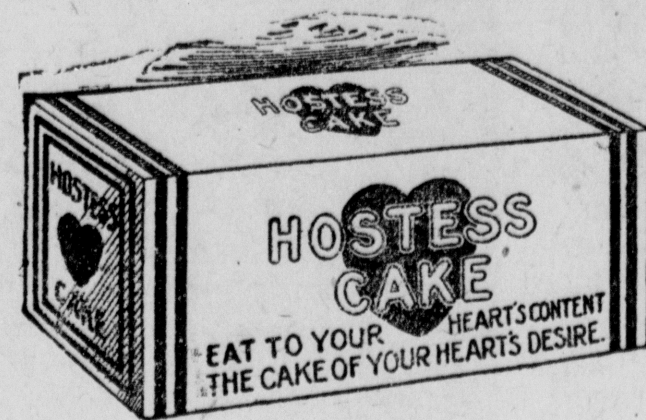

"Yes," said the bride, "and that's the trouble with those farmers. They are so anxious to get their eggs sold that they take them off the nest too soon!"

Inspector of service for the Santa Fe railroad, covering approximately 4,000 miles on its western divisions, and looking after welfare of more than 800 women in its employ, is the unique position now occupied by Mrs. Adele B. Price, former Holly-wood matron, women's club president and teacher of music. She declares her new work is the greatest thing she has ever undertaken and says it is much more worth while than club work or music.

Mrs. Price took up her work two years ago when the railroad administration was running the railroads. This branch of the transportation business is one phase of railroadizing the companies decided to keep when the government left go of the roads. Fourteen railroad companies now have women for service inspectors.

There are said to be 86,000 women in the employ of the railroads in this country. They are well paid workers and are said to be less inclined to participate in labor disputes than men.

Young women who learn telegraphy are generally sent out along the line to the little "tank towns" where there is seldom more than a box car house to shelter the station agent. Some of these girls act as telegraph operators and station agent and actually perform all the duties in connection with the job, such as throwing switches and hanging the mail pouches on the crane, where the mail cars can pick them up at full speed.

Mrs. Price takes it her business to visit all the women employed by the company and see that they are kept happy and contented to dispel the monotony of life in the small towns of the desert she has provided a traveling library and trainmen have been instructed to gather up the discarded newspapers and magazines and drop them off at the desert stations.

Rest rooms are being provided in the larger cities, where many women are employed by the company, as San Francisco there are ninety women acting as coach cleaners and car washers. By having a gutter put in to carry off the wash water that drips from the sides of the cars Mrs. Price has prevented a lot of wet feet, improved the health of these women and earned their everlasting gratitude.

Among her other duties is that of settling disputes among the women in the company's employ. She keeps in touch with the women who work in its many railroad lunch-rooms all along the line and by holding frequent meetings with them and showing them that her sole aim is to better their working conditions, she has been able to build up the morale wonderfully, the officials say. Because they can tell their troubles to one of their own sex, the women will confide in her when they want to tell their troubles to men who are officials of the railroad, and this makes it possible to iron out many little issues which formerly could not be settled happily.

LARGEST NUMBER OF HORSES ENTERED AT FAIR IN 15 YEARS

With the largest number of horses entered in at least the last fifteen years, racing fans are looking forward to some lively stepping in the three-day track events of the eighty first annual Greene county fair which opens Tuesday.

More than 260 horses have been entered this year making an entry list more than twice as long as the usual number of entries and comprising some of the best twice-around speeders in this section. Two hundred and fifty-nine entries are listed on the entry sheet published by the Fair Association for the nine events which comprise the Wednesday Thursday and Friday speed-offerings, while there at least five or six other entries that were not placed on the sheets. The fact that there is no entry fee charged and the increasing post war interest in the speed game which has increased the number of race horses traveling is the cause for the large entry list.

According to the speed program given out there will be a 2:30 pace a 2:11 pace and 2:24 trot on the Wednesday afternoon speed program on Thursday the three events will be composed of a 2:20 trot, a 2:20 pace and a 2:16 trot and on Friday there will be a 2:25 pace, 2:30 trot and 2:15 pace. Many speed bugs hold that the 15 pace on Friday afternoon will offer the biggest package of interest for the fans while others claim the 11 pace on the opening day will furnish the main event of the three day's racing.

It is a safe bet that if all the speeders entered in the different events show up for the getaway that starter Steve Phillips who will handle the bill this year, will have a tough time of it. In fact it would be a difficult proposition to get the 42 horses entered in the 30 pace or the 40 entered in the 20 pace away with any kind of precision, as the field would have to be divided into five or six tiers in case all entered are sent on their way.

Probably for the first time in the history of the fair, and at least for a number of years, a woman driver has a stable at the local track. Mrs. W. E. Darrist, of Carlinville, Illinois, is the feminine driver who will pilot several horses in the events of three days. Mrs. Darrist has Lady Van Tell entered in the 30 pace Wednesday and Bonnie Hall, a brown gelding, in the 11 pace the same day. "Speck" Erskine, who is handling Betty K. R. S. Kingsbury's three-year-old trotter on the bigger circuits has a large stable at the local track, including Midgel Hal, in the 30 pace Wednesday, Abbie Bond in the 11 pace Wednesday, and in the 20 pace Thursday, and Sue K in the 16 trot Thursday. Midgel Hal is also entered in the 25 pace Friday.

Colby Turner, the "armless wonder," has Laura Lucille, a sorrel mare by Nutwood Wilkes in the 16 trot Thursday. There are a number of Xenia drivers entered. Joe Hagler has two entries in the 30 pace Wednesday. Helen H. and Hallie Cochata being listed. In the 20 trot Thursday, Hagler has Bond Lissa, a brown mare, entered and in the 30 pace he has listed Helen H. Hallie Cochata and Woodliffe King J. He also has Bond Lissa entered in the 16 trot Thursday. Helen H. Hallie Cochata and Woodliffe King J. are all three entered in the 25 pace Friday.

Jesse Hall, of Xenia, is entered with Great Day by Cadocus the Great 24 trot Wednesday, and Paul Edwards, of this city, has an entry in Simon, a starter in the 25 pace Friday. Johnny ones, the colored driver, from Cedarville, has his stable at the local track-around ready to get away Wednesday with Ray D. and Frank McKinney in the 30 pace. Forest Jones, also of Cedarville, has an entry in the 11 pace Wednesday. Goldie J., the well-known little bay mare by Little Frank, being listed. Bessie L., another Little Frank offspring, is entered in that pace by James Hollingsworth, of Jamestown, while W. B. Weimer, of Cedarville, has his pacer, Dexter W., listed for the opening event, the 30 pace.

Louis the Great, the bay gelding by On Great, is listed by H. S. Bailey, of Mechanicsburg. Bugs remember the horse as the winner of a heat at Berea this season, when one ticket purchased on the paces paid $900 to $1. He is entered in the 25 pace Friday. There are a number promising step-lingers on the entry sheets as well as a number of tried horses that have been successful on the dirt this year.

LOCAL WOMEN WILL ATTEND FEDERATION MEETING MONDAY

A real pastime is expected at the Cincinnati avenue yards, when "Tack" Latimer's Cincinnati Division base ball team, holders of second place in the Grand Division of the Pennsylvania Ines League, tackle the Columbus Panhandlers, who are now leading the league, Wednesday afternoon.

The Panhandlers are so far undefeated and being organized longer, they have been going better than any team in the league. The Columbus aggregation took a fall out of the locals in the initial pastime of the league at Columbus when they defeated "Tack's" crew in a small score contest, but practice and experience obtained by the locals since that time is expected to benefit them greatly in the coming contest.

George Wetzel, leading pitching ace, of Latimer's aggregation, who has a world of stuff and a steady delivery, has been having his difficulties mainly due to the fact that he has been pitching too often as this lad has been playing Sunday ball on the Cincinnati sand lots. Manager Latimer has ordered him to let up on the twice a week hurling and with his proper rest, the right hander is expected to deliver in fine shape.

If Wetzel can keep the hits scattered and the batting eyes of the locals are in any sort of shape, there will undoubtedly be a pleasant surprise in store for the Columbus lads as the locals hammer the pill viciously when going good.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Baked Bananas—Use very ripe bananas. Peel, scrape with silver knife (to remove indigestible part); cut in halves lengthwise, lay in pan (not tin). Dot with bits of butter, cover with boiling water. Bake about one hour or until very tender and a delicate brown. Baste. Very nourishing and easily digested by those who are unable to eat them uncooked.

Casserole of Beef—An inexpensive cut of meat. Rub in plenty of flour, place in casserole, season. Add a little boiling water. Cook three hours, or until tender, in a slow oven. About one hour before serving add cooked rice, baste, and replace in oven.

Salad—Use left over peas, string beans, beets, etc. Add a chopped hard-boiled egg and a few nuts. Mix with mayonnaise and serve on crisp lettuce leaves.

CANNING STRAWBERRIES

It is rather unfortunate that strawberries should be one of the hardest products to can with good results. The canning itself is simple—but strawberries always shrink, are likely to turn a little brown, and, what is the most distressing, they float to the top of the jar. The berries tendency to shrink is responsible for loss of color as well as its floating qualities. However, if care is taken to remove the berries from the canner the minute the period of sterilizing is over, the resulting product will be better.

Use only fresh, sound berries. Wash and hull the berries by twisting the berries of the hull, instead of pulling the hull from the berry.

Never allow the berries to stand in water, as the flavor and color are lost by water soaking.

Place in the prepared jars, pressing the berries down tightly but without crushing them. Place on the rubber which has been dipped for one minute in boiling water. Pour hot syrup over the berries.

Put the top of the jar in place but only partly tighten it. The jar must not be air tight while the product is cooking, because the air will expand when heated, and if the cover is not loose enough to allow the steam to escape the pressure may blow the rubber out or break the jar.

The product is now ready for the canner. If you use any type of hot water bath for the cooking be sure the water is boiling before lowering the fruit into it, and KEEP IT BOILING vigorously for the entire SIXTEEN MINUTES. (With steam pressure outfit sterilize ten minutes at five to ten pounds pressure.) At the end of that time remove it IMMEDIATELY. Complete the seal—covers screwed down tight or clamp in place—as soon as they are removed from the cooker. Store in a dark place at a temperature below seventy degrees F. if possible.

A medium thick syrup is used for strawberries. This is made by boiling three cups of sugar and two cups of water until it will pile up over the edge of the spoon when it is tipped.

Is It Yours

THIS IS THE BIRTHDAY OF JOHN TYNDALL August 2, 1920.

This is not only the anniversary of the birth of John Tyndall, it is also the centenary. One hundred years ago today, the great scientist was born in County Carlow, Ireland. He has done an immense amount to further our knowledge of bacteria, of the laws of magnetism, of the action of heat and sound, and of many other things that seem remote and scientific in themselves, but that actually add to much of the comfort and convenience of modern life.

Tyndall started as a civil engineer, and when he was 19 he was a surveyor in Ireland. A few years later he went to England to do the same work, but found an opportunity sometime later to become a teacher of mathematics. He had always wanted to study

BUSY DAYS—HAPPY DAYS ..

Chapter 78

I was so excited over it all, I couldn't wait for Mary to come home but I went to meet her. "Just get your breath, Zena, and commence over again. What's all settled?"

"Oh, Mary, I have so much to tell you! It's all settled and everything!" "Oh, Mrs. Fagin is a dear! She knows, the one she rents her house from, and she has rented a lovely place—it will be lovely when he gets it all fixed up, it is awful now—and she is going to let us take it, from her. She said that maybe landlords wouldn't want to rent to two girls like us. And Mary, he's going to do every single thing she asked him to. Paint the floor three coats and there's a little room in the back for a kitchen and—"

"You'll never live to help run that tea room if you don't stop. Your breath will give out." Mary was just as excited as I was even tho she did make fun of me. After dinner we went over to look at the place again and she, like Mrs. Fagin saw its possibilities at once.

"I never thought we would get such a dainty place as this," she said. "Why Zena, we'll be the happiest girls in Chicago if it goes." "It's got to go! Mrs. Fagin has pledged herself and we can't let her back a losing game, Mary."

"Did you find out how much you could get on your jewels?" Mary called them "jools."

"No, we had no time today, Mrs. Fagin is going with me in the morning."

"She'll lose her roomers if we don't get settled pretty quick. Gaddin' around with you all day."

"Isn't she wonderful?" "She's Irish, ain't she?"

I laughed heartily. Mary's admiration of her own race always amused me. In her mind almost everything and everybody that was worth anything came from Ireland.

"Then, Mary, I am going to buy the paint and get to work on those tables and chairs in the cellar. We are going to have everything pale gray with a little yellow border. It is a very pretty combination, gray and yellow—French gray I mean."

How that better than Irish gray? But go along with you and make the room and language you want to, so long it is pretty enough to catch trade. That's what we will have to be lookin' for—trade. I heard the boss talkin' today, and I listened in. He said that the public must be pleased, that no business could succeed that did not try to please the people upon whom they depended for patronage. I tried to remember it just as he said it. Was that like he would say it?"

"Absolutely! You see, Mary, it isn't hard to speak correctly if you stop and think a little."

"A little! I wrote that down, then learned it between times."

"Oh Mary! I wonder if you dream how funny you are at times! I would have forgotten how to laugh long ago if it hadn't been for you."

"It's makin' fun you are!" "No, Mary! But I can't help laughing. I wish I could say such quaint things, I'm jealous!"

"The dickens you are!" she retorted, but harmony was restored. The next morning I walked to the corner with her. When we separated she said:

"I feel almost like a beggar, Zena, to have you pawn your things, but I ain't got nothin' they'd give me two cents on. And I'll make it up to you some way soon, I did it—thought of it. I mean—mostly because of you. It just broke my heart to see you tryin' to buck the workin' game the way you was. You wasn't made for that kind of livin'." You hadn't been brought up that way. Now, even if you do have to work as hard, or harder you will be your own boss—when I ain't bossin' you."

"You can boss me all you like, I dear. And remember that we are partners in everything. People sell good ideas for money, Mary. Your idea is worth whatever your half of starting the business would be."

"You ain't stringin' me! Do folks really PAY or an idea?" "Yes, Mary, and often very large sums."

"Gee! That makes me feel less like a beggar, Zena."
